

WFH Global Summit on women & girls

with bleeding disorders July 8–10, 2021

WFH women and girls with bleeding disorders (WBGDs) “yourstory.wfh.org” community guidelines

The World Federation of Hemophilia (WFH) wants to provide a safe, communal space where everyone can feel comfortable submitting, viewing, and interacting with the content on yourstory.wfh.org. In order to ensure this site is a welcoming space for visitors and contributors, we request that you always respect fellow community members. Please refrain from including remarks, videos or comments that are:

- Abusive, defamatory, or obscene
- Fraudulent, deceptive or misleading
- Medical in nature
- In violation of any intellectual property rights
- In violation of any laws or regulations
- Otherwise offensive, either graphically or in tone

The WFH reserves the right to not approve postings that do not respect the above guidelines.

Please note:

- A post expresses the views of its author and does not represent the views of the WFH or its staff
- Inclusion on the yourstory.wfh.org website is not an endorsement
- The WFH is not responsible for the accuracy of information, opinions, claims, or advice shared by any individuals or organizations
- The WFH does not allow companies to solicit products, services or research on the yourstory.wfh.org site
- References and links to other websites or references to other organizations, products, services, or publications do not constitute an endorsement or approval by the WFH
- The WFH is not responsible and assumes no liability for the content of any linked websites